

THE LAZY GIRL'S GUIDE

Does the thought of getting crafty feel like it's just another homeschooling sesh? Luckily, these pros have done the hard work for you...

MACRAMÉ

Although Studio Dawn offers DIY kits, we've fallen for owner Chelsie's made-to-order macramé wall lamps in a variety of colours, from £45, and her air plant pod hangers, £16. StudioDawnShop at Etsy.co.uk

CERAMICS

Throwing pottery is much harder than it looks, so it's worth leaving it to the experts. From teapots to planters, soap dishes to personalised pet bowls, Wiltshire-based ceramicist Libby has it covered with her coastal-inspired, timeless designs. Planter, £45, Libbyballard.co.uk

LINEN

Hand-printed textiles on hand-loomed cotton using natural dyes - Maravera's cushions and table linens are the ultimate in contemporary cool and help to support artisans in India.

WAX

These soy candles are handmade by a Liverpoolian hubby and wife team who started their business in lockdown. Pick from pastel-coloured beauties in the hot-right-now shapes of bubbles, shells, twists, arches and our fave - moons.

Can you ever have enough candles?

Not when they're this pretty.

From £4.50 each, LeBonCandles at Etsy.co.uk

JESMONITE

After a beautiful marbled tray or some new storage pots with personality? These quirky jesmonite creations from Brighton-based Bennita are sure to add a pop of colour to your pad.
